Visit variations

We offer two versions of our company events tailored to varying time availability and group sizes. Shows are available in:

Business standard

- Private show
- Time of your choosing
- Dedicated offer
- Enlarged tasting
- Special requests

1. Interactive show

Most popular version - informative with a healthy pinch of laughter. During the show, every participant can take part in the process of making a St. Martin's croissant as an aide to the Grand Croissant Master. The program can be enriched with many additional options, such as croissant decorating by every guest. We can also host our shows at your company's headquarters or hotel's conference room.

2. Team-building workshop

Participants will be grouped into teams and assigned many tasks that will engage their senses and various skills.

In the end, every guest will make their own unique croissant, which they can take home in a souvenir box.

While the baked goods are in the oven, participants will be engaged in other interesting activities while sipping coffee from our buffet (included).

Worthwhile extensions

We recommend enhancing the program with expertly tailored options to suit your preferences.

Croissant decoration

Great souvenir!

Enhance the croissant-making session with decorating options using icing and a variety of sprinkles.

This allows our guests to complete the experience by crafting their own unique croissant, which will be packed in an original souvenir box.
